COACHING FOR TEACHERS

Lois has worked in education for many years and knows only too well the stresses and workload that come with teaching.

Currently, teachers have been catapulted into extreme change which can trigger stress and anxiety. At this present time, Into Wellbeing has adapted to offer services online or by phone, should face to face sessions not be available.

Comments from staff at Stormont School, Potters Bar:

‘Very interesting and informative.’

‘Very enjoyable. Thank you!’

‘Thank you for another really useful session.’

‘Loved it gain.’

The STOP Tool

Whether something has happened in an instant to cause you stress, or whether you are aware of a build-up of anxiety inside you, try The Stop Tool to proceed with emotional intelligence. Remember everything you say and do has a consequence.

Stop

Take a breath

Observe thoughts, feeling and sensations

Proceed with choice e.g. respond rather than react

3 Minute Breathing Meditation

The breath is the most important and convenient tool we have in
